

STRONG APPEAL FOR RUSSIANS

Jewish Congregations Here Take Decided Action.

SEND MONEY TO AID IN RELIEF

Made Eloquent Memorial to Congress to Intercede and Ask Other Nations to Join in Bringing Justice to the Oppressed.

The executive committee, representing the three local Jewish congregations, met at Beth Ahavah Temple last night, passed resolutions memorializing Congress in behalf of the Russians, and authorizing the treasurer, Mr. L. Z. Morris, to forward $2,000 to Mr. Jacob H. Schiff, of New York, the general treasurer of the Russian Relief Fund in the United States.

The congregations represented were Beth Ahavah, Moses Montefiore and Keneseth Israel.

The committee received reports of collections made, among which were a large number of voluntary contributions from Gentiles.

Other collections are yet to be made, but of the sum so far received Mr. Morris was authorized to send the $2,000 heretofore referred to.

The memorial to Senators Daniel and Martin and Congressmen involving aid from the national government, is a strong paper, and is an eloquent appeal for intervention.

The committee will not personally solicit subscriptions from any but Jews, though they will be glad to receive contributions from all who may desire to cooperate in the work. For the aid and sympathy so far given, the congregations are deeply appreciative.

A Strong Appeal.

The resolutions adopted are as follows: "The Jews of the city of Richmond, no less than the right-thinking men of every other civilized community, have learned with inexpressible sorrow of the pitiful condition of the unprotected Jews, who are so unfortunately as to be inhabitants of Russian domains. Though silently bearing the oppressive denial of equal rights by the ruling aristocracy, they had been hopefully looking forward to a time when, as citizens, they would be accorded the heaven-born right of liberty; but when this right was recently extended to the masses, it seems that this blessing of freedom was suddenly converted into a frenzy of lawless license by means of which upwards of 35,000 unoffending Jews have been made the victims of murder, rapine, pillage and arson. The pen refuses to describe the scenes of bloodshed and suffering by what means further outrages of similar character may be stayed. Time was when the sanctity of dominion and the respect due to sister nations demanded that the outsider should hold his peace while other nations settled affairs with their own citizens according to the pleasure of those entrusted with temporal power, but this enlightened age is capable of teaching a different lesson, and the shackles of national propriety which have heretofore held the peace-loving righteous in dumb submission should now be torn asunder in order that there may be an expression of horrors that shall be heard around the earth whenever innocent blood is shed to satiate the appetite of brutal passion.

"In an age that teaches forbearance, charity, mercy, compassion and peace, it becomes the bounded duty of both men and nations to intercede in behalf of the oppressed. We, therefore, appeal to the United States government, as the one that stands foremost in the eyes of the world as a promoter of peace and justice, to take into consideration the propriety of sending instructions to all of our representatives within the dominions of Russia to offer, as far as practicable, at the consulates of the United States an asylum for the safety of life, to every person who may flee from the persecution now being visited upon and ask for protection during the continuance of this reign of incendiarism. We further appeal to our government to ask all other civilized countries to unite in similar measures. And we ask that the lovers of justice

South Also Generous.

The Postal Telegraph Company has made the announcement that it will transmit free of charge any telegrams relating to subscriptions to the relief fund for the benefit of the Jews in Russia.

Rabbi Calsch has returned from the South, where he spoke in the interest of the Russian Jews and B'nai B'rith. In Savannah, where he spoke twice, nearly $3,000 was raised, and his success was no less marked in Charlotte and Wilmington.

OUTBREAK MAY NOT TAKE PLACE

plete than it was Wednesday, and though no break has been manifested in the ranks of the workmen and strikes have broken out at Moscow and Reval, the most important feature of yesterday's developments was the failure of the walk-out to spread generally outside the capital. The movement apparently lacks the spontaneity and contagiousness of the last great strike, which broke out at Moscow, and dispatches received from the industrial centers of Russia up to this hour show little inclination on the part of the workmen to take up cudgels in behalf of Poland.

The factory strike at Moscow, which has assumed considerable proportions, probably 4,000 men being out, has no direct connection with the St. Petersburg walk-out, and dispatches from the old capital say that the railroad men received the request of the St. Petersburg Strike Committee coldly. The whole great network of railroads centering at Moscow, except the St. Petersburg line, is still in operation. At Reval the employees of the railroad shops struck, but the reason for the strike is not stated. Order in St. Petersburg. In St. Petersburg yesterday passed with complete order. Patrols were visible in all the industrial quarters, and Cosacks were trotting up and down the Nevsky Prospect among the swiftly dashing carriages and sleighs, but the workmen, in obedience to the orders of the Strike Committee, kept generally indoors, and did not attempt demonstrations, so that there was no occasion for a resort to forces to avert trouble.

The strikers forced the closing of the Moscow railroad station early yesterday afternoon, stopping outgoing traffic for Moscow and at 10 o'clock last night they finally succeeded in closing the electric stations and in cutting off light from the city. Committees were sent to all the theatres and succeeded in stopping the performances in several of them and in the outlying districts they went from drug store to drug store ordering the proprietors to close and threatening them with the destruction of their stocks. If they refused, other stores were not interfered with.

Strike's End Not Far Off. At a meeting of the strike committee last night the question of the termination of the strike was not brought up, but the Associated Press noticed an exclamation on the part of many of the delegates that the strike would end Saturday night. The principal question under discussion at the meeting was the formation of a strike treasury, by gathering funds to be used in future walk-outs and after long consideration it was decided to ask the workmen to contribute one per cent. of their wages for this purpose.

There is not betterment of the Agrarian conditions. Dispatches from Kursk, Poltava, Riazan, Samara and other provinces continue to report the spread of disorders, which in Poltava are taking an anti-Jewish turn.

However, the imperial manifesto regarding the distribution of the crown domains, which by strenuous work, was finished last night, will be issued early this morning, and the Emperor and Count Witte hope it will tend to pacify the peasants and have an important tactical effect on the coming struggle with the socialists and its anti-government forces in the elections for the Duma.

Will Distribute Funds. (By Associated Press.) ST. PETERSBURG, November 16.—Baron Gurnburg, a well known Jewish philanthropist of St. Petersburg, has received imperial authorization for the distribution of the Jewish relief funds raised in America, England and other foreign countries. He is now organizing committees. The advance money will be required and the major portion of the funds on hand will immediately be distributed to provide those who are in urgent need with food and other necessities of life.

TAMMANY TIGER SWALLOWS KRUP

Man Indicted for Illegal Voting Failed to Appear in Court for Pleading.

$5,000 BAIL IS FORFEITED

Attorney General Mayer Not Surprised—Thought Some One Interested in Him.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, November 16.—Something of a sensation was created in Justice Davy's branch of the Supreme Court this afternoon, when John Krup, indicted for illegal voting in the recent municipal election, failed to appear for pleading, and his attorneys expressed ignorance as to his whereabouts.

Earlier in the day Krup's release had been secured under increased bail, a $5,000 cash bond being filed.

State Attorney-General Mayer, who was in court, was indignant at the turn of affairs. To-night the attorney-general made public this statement:

"Every effort will be made to ascertain how he put up the $5,000 bail, and who employed counsel to defend Krup. The failure of Krup to appear in court was as flagrant a defiance of law as I ever heard of. I believe there were reasons, apart from reasons of his own, why Krup did not appear."

Justice Davy declared the $5,000 bail forfeited. Attorney-General Mayer, moving for a forfeiture of bail, declared he was not surprised at the turn of affairs.

"If this defendant has left town," declared the attorney-general, "I know with whom he has been seen, and will know how to proceed. I thought somebody must have been greatly interested in Krup to put up $5,000 bail for him, just to secure his liberty for a few hours."

night, many more by the early trains this morning, and the midday and evening trains brought in the balance, swelling the number to something like four hundred and fifty, or maybe five hundred.

A part of the Richmond delegations came in this morning on the train leaving Richmond at 7:30, but the most of them arrived here at 8:20, having left Richmond on the Chesapeake and Ohio train leaving there at 2:30.

Preliminary Service.

As preliminaries to the great assembling of the Baptists, there were two interesting services last night.

At the First Baptist Church a large congregation was assembled to hear a sermon by Rev. Dr. J. R. Sampey, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, of Louisville, Ky. Dr. Sampey is one of the ablest divines in the South, and his sermon last night was regarded as one of the best heard here in many a long day.

Another delightful preliminary service was a lecture by Rev. Dr. James B. Taylor, his subject was "Good Old Times in the South."

The audience was captivated by Dr. Taylor's delightful personality, and the interest was maintained throughout. The lecture is a singularly fine one, full of good sense and philosophy and abounding in beautiful periods and interesting anecdotes. The bright, keen points of the lecture were not lost to the audience, and the enjoyment was unfeigned.

The Orphanage.

At 10 o'clock this morning the board of trustees of the Baptist Orphanage, located at Salem, held a meeting, which lasted until 1 o'clock. It was an executive meeting, and none but the officials were admitted.

The report of the Executive Board, submitted at this meeting, gives interesting facts and figures. Since July, 1892, 272 children have been admitted to the Orphanage, and of these 124 have been discharged. The Orphanage now has in charge 148 children, seventy-nine being boys and sixty-nine girls. No deaths have occurred during the past year, and the health of the children is good.

Last February varioloid in mild form broke out in the institution, and while twenty-two boys, twelve girls and three employees suffered from the malady, there were no deaths, and none of those affected have suffered any serious effects.

The printing office, in which boys work, has more than paid expenses. The knitting factory is beginning to do good work, and will, it is expected, soon become a valuable industrial department. The sewing department has produced in the past year 2,614 garments, worth $701.40, while the farm department has turned out wood, shingles and posts valued at $154.25; vegetables, worth $157.71; 450 bushels of corn, valued at $209, and provender valued at $175.75.

The Finances. The institution has received the past year $18,104.25, as follows: From 290 churches, cash, $7,826.82; from 200 Sunday schools, $4,765.42; from 137 missionary and orphan societies, $726.89; from 2 district associations, $21.44; from individual contributions, $258.24; other donations, $226.80; of supplies donated, $125.02. Fifty-seven more churches, forty-two more mission societies and three more Sunday schools contributed this year.

than last, showing that interest in the orphanage is growing.

The receipts of this year are not as large as last, which is accounted for by the fact that there were no bequests this year, while those of the late Col. Thomas Tabb and the late Robert S. Basher, coming in last year, amounted to $350.

The total expenditures for the year have been $19,231.65, the sum of $34.25 being for repairs, and $2,539.93 being for the construction of new and improved water works. An ice house and a pond from which to save ice are now being built.

Practical Case.

The report has this interesting paragraph: "The young lady who attended the Roanoke Business College, and who graduated there, has been employed by your board as stenographer and typewriter for the superintendent. She also teaches a class in stenography in our institution. The very satisfactory course of this young lady, whose time as one of the orphan inmates had expired, but who was given an opportunity to prepare herself for life, fills your board with joy, and encourages them to believe that a number of our children may hereafter be qualified both in head and heart to accept the very generous offers which have been made to our institution for the training and education of our children who desire to better equip themselves for life."

The report closes with the very gratifying statement: "We are entirely out of debt."

The exercises of the opening of the session of the association began this evening at 7:30 and the body was presided over by President W. W. Moffett. The introductory sermon was preached by the Rev. J. L. Rosser, of Grove Avenue Church, Richmond. The address of welcome was made by Dr. John B. Turpin, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of this city, and response by the Rev. R. A. Williams, of Chase City, Va.

WANT COLLEGE HERE.

Alumnae of Woman's College Adopt Strong Resolutions.

The Alumnae Association of the Woman's College, city, wishes to bring before its friends and the public its interest in the movement of the Baptists to establish a large woman's college in the South. The question of the new college is to be brought to an issue at the Baptist General Association meeting in Charlottesville. The following resolutions were adopted at the spring meeting this year of the Alumnae Association:

RESOLUTIONS. TO THE VIRGINIA BAPTIST GENERAL ASSOCIATION.

The Alumnae of the Woman's College of Richmond have watched with greatest interest the growth and progress of the Baptist denomination of the State to found somewhere in this Commonwealth a college for women, which, in endowment and equipment, and also in standards and ideals, shall be such as to give to young women educational opportunities equal to those of the foremost colleges for men. We desire in some formal way to express our interest in the movement, and to this end we address this communication to you.

We desire especially to urge upon you the claims of Richmond as an every account the place where the proposed college should be located. Among the reasons for this we venture to suggest the following:

1. If the college were founded here, in a sense, built up upon the present woman's college, it would start off with a large patronage, and that would be to all intents and purposes, a ready-made Alumnae Association.

2. The denomination already has here a strong, progressive college for men. The two institutions would not only stimulate each other, but would in several ways be helpful to one another. Certain kinds of expensive equipment would be instituted, the cost of which would be owned and used in common by the two in which there would be economy in having the two colleges in close proximity to one another.

3. The strongest argument is the city of Richmond itself, which in important respects is the foremost city, as well as the chief educational center of the South. There are countless ways in which Richmond would contribute powerfully to the intellectual, social, and moral growth of the young women of the South who should come within its influence.

Acted upon by the unanimous vote of the Alumnae Association of the Woman's College of Richmond.

SENT OBSCENE LETTERS TO PROMINENT GIRLS

Trial of Rome T. Chandler. Postoffice Inspector On Stand.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) DANVILLE, Va., November 16.—The trial of Rome T. Chandler, a former free delivery letter carrier and a prominent young man of Virginia, charged with sending obscene letters through the mails to young ladies of the place, was begun today in the United States court, Judge McDowell presiding.

Practically all of the morning session of court was taken up in empanelling the jury, and the examination of witnesses was not started until noon. Mr. James B. Robertson, government postoffice inspector, was the first witness placed on the stand. He told how he had been put on the case and the methods used in placing the crime on him. He produced obscene letters written to ladies at Virginia, and told how he delivered these letters in person to the ladies, who marked them for identification. These letters were introduced as evidence, despite the objections of the defense. They contain the most indecent and revolting language that can be imagined, and were entirely too vulgar to be read in court. The letters will be given to the jury to read after they retire for a verdict. Court adjourned at 6 o'clock this afternoon to convene again at night, with Robertson still on the stand.

The accused is well connected, and is represented by the following attorneys: Peabody and Jarrett, of this city; Hon. W. P. Barksdale, of Halifax, and ex-Congressman Thorpe, of Norfolk. There are in all fifty witnesses to be examined. At the session to-night Robertson is being subjected to a rigid cross-examination by the attorneys for the defense.

CHESTERFIELD COURT.

Trial of An Ejectment Suit—Alleged Fire Bug Acquitted. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CHESTERFIELD, Va., November 16.—The Circuit Court to-day the trial of an ejectment suit of Bowman Roberts vs. Rennie Robertson and others, involving the title to the estate, lands of Jasper Clayton, deceased, in Manchester District, was partially heard. Mr. E. H. Wells, associate counsel for the defense, was not well enough to attend court to-day. Messrs. D. J. Williams and Edgar Allan appeared for the plaintiffs, and Judge Gregory for the defendants.

The Bowman Clayton Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association, a local fire insurance company, will be continued to the next term on account of Mr. Wells's sickness. The Bowman Clayton case was tried yesterday on the charge of burning the house of Mary Harper near Patrick, and acquitted. Mr. W. J. Gill, county treasurer, is making his annual rounds through the managerial districts of the county, collecting current taxes. He will be in Chester to-morrow and Saturday, and in
